

The Blue Room Theatre

Executive Director

20 April 2020

The Blue Room Theatre is a highly-regarded organisation that is fundamental to the needs of independent theatre in Western Australia. Situated in Northbridge, The Blue Room Theatre is a bustling artistic hub for artists and audiences to meet, create, produce, engage, critique and network.

Through the passion, energy and commitment of our members and supporters, The Blue Room Theatre is one of Australia's leading arts organisations, offering a unique and effective model of resource management and service delivery for independent theatre makers. The Blue Room Theatre seeks to create a fresh legacy of risk-taking new theatre that represents today's Australia from the West Coast, embracing our place at the heart of Perth to deliver high quality, dynamic and relevant theatre to new and diverse Western Australian audiences.

The Role

The Executive Director provides dynamic leadership, making consistent and timely progress towards The Blue Room Theatre's long-term strategy to achieve its vision, purpose and strategic objectives. The Executive Director also ensures overall sound management of the organisation, with ultimate responsibility for all activities, including day-to-day operations, human resources, finances, program development and implementation as well as administration.

Term

It is envisaged that the Executive Director will commence in mid-2020 for an initial term of three years.

Selection

Applicants should have a proven track record of arts leadership and a minimum five years' experience at a management level in the arts industry.

How To Apply

Please contact The Blue Room Theatre Chair Shane Colquhoun at chair@blueroom.org.au for a job information pack and with any questions about the role. The deadline for applications is Monday 11 May 2020 5pm.
