Coral Bay 01

Motherhood, dignity and death

Presenter: Umbrella Works INC
Ages: 15+

Cat ran away to Coral Bay, leaving a newborn baby in Perth. Her mum, Jenny, has flown twelve hundred kilometres to drag Cat home. Her grandmother Trish wants them both to nick off, so she can die alone. Three generations of women wrestle their obligations towards each other, expectations of motherhood, and the right to die with dignity.

The Summer Of Our Lives 02

ET meets Carrie... and it's a musical

Presenter: Western Sky Projects
Ages: 15+

Things aren't great for Arthur and Penelope: their dad's dead, and Mum's new boyfriend is a drip. When an alien crashes their 'family' holiday, Penelope decides to take revenge on everyone who's wronged them. Hilarious and unhinged, this coming-of-age musical schlockbuster asks what we really need to be happy.

The Jellyman 03

Surreal mirage of gender fuckery

Presenter: Rhiannon Petersen
Ages: 15+

Jerry is a complicated man. He's a bit like a lump of something stuck in your throat. He's also a character performed by Rhiannon. Monsters, microbes and feminism unite to orchestrate his demise, in this surreal meditation on power, identity, and the impending a-cock-alypse.

Beginning At The End (Of Capitalism) 05

Retro futurist voyage

Presenter: Phoebe Sullivan
Ages: 15+

Capitalism is cancelled. Now what? A solo mission investigation on how our society can recalibrate our value system and whether that means you can still pick up a deal on Ebay. A visual and aural layer cake that slices our obsession with possessions, set against a backdrop of diamantes and a desire to reconnect with old friends.

Hard Body Bcup 11

Girls on film

Presenter: sandpaperplane & Hey! Precious
Ages: 18+

Lilith was 12 the first time she saw two women kiss, on screen. Now she has romance fizzing in her stomach. She sits and interviews actors to play the role of the woman she wants to love but hasn't met yet. Episodes of defiant love in a world of suffocating heteronormativity. This is an assassination of the male gaze in the media landscape.
